Introduction

Purpose

This policy has been developed to provide a framework for all Castings Tasmania employees and contractors in declaring conflicts of interest. This policy details, on how employees and contractors conflict of interests are managed.

Scope

This policy is relevant to all staff, contractors and visitors of Castings Tasmania.

Responsibilities

Employees and Management responsibilities

- assessing their private and personal interests and whether they conflict, or have the potential to conflict, with their official duties
- take reasonable steps to restrict the extent to which a private interest could compromise, or be seen to compromise, their ability to carry out their duties
- disclose conflicts of interest they may have to the relevant manager.

General Statement

General Statement

Castings Tasmania is committed to the transparent disclosure, management and monitoring of existing and potential conflicts of interest. All managers and employees have a duty to avoid actual or perceived conflicts of interest.

Managers and employees must avoid being placed in a situation where they must make a decision in relation to the business of Castings Tasmania that might be adversely affected by another business or personal interest.

Avoiding actual, potential and perceived conflicts of interest is fundamental to ensuring the highest levels of integrity and trust for all Castings Tasmania's operations.

Conflicts of interest can be actual, potential or perceived.

- An actual conflict of interest is one where there is a real conflict between an employee's duties and responsibilities and their private interests.
- A potential conflict of interest arises when an employee has private interests that could conflict with their duties.
- A perceived conflict of interest exists when a third party could form the view that an employee's private interest could improperly influence the performance of their duties, now or in the future.

Any such disclosures to management shall be held confidentially and may not be taken into account in any employment context other than the avoidance of conflicts of interest.

Implementation

Breach of this Policy
